

what do I have to know about great ideas?

They start as farce.

from yhr viewpoint of crowd steering intellectuals
defending their precious high ground.

kkkk

Which they not only lose, but embrace the attackers
thereupon.

Then the great ideas win out?

Emphatically! But there a shelf life.

When they...

They become farce...